GIVE THE WOW FACTOR

Some people are just hard to shop for. We understand. Here are some suggestions for gifting the person who has everything:

◆ A portrait painting. Professional, personal art is a cherished gift that will last for generations. There are a number of society artists in the area, but we recommend seeking the services of Ralph Wolfe Cowan in West Palm Beach (561-833-1615, ralphcowan.weebly.com), Isabelle Beuttell Dayton in Vero Beach (772-569-6223, portraitartist.com/Dayton) or Beverley Bryant in Wellington (561-736-8928 facebook.com/bryantstudio).

◆ Personalized music. Give the gift of song with customized music from Satum Sound Services. The studio has a team of arrangers, composers and vocalists to help you create a unique sound for someone special. West Palm Beach (561-832-2148, satumsoundstudios.com)

◆ A trip to space. Forget international travel—take someone out of this world by purchasing a ticket to space on Virgin Galactic. You can reserve a spot on one of the company's space craft, which will begin offering two-hour commercial spaceflights in late 2012 or early 2013. virgingalactic.com

◆ A movie tribute. Make a loved one feel like a star by honoring him or her in a documentary. Forty Story Films writes, produces and directs independent, personalized films using client interviews, home movies and family photos. Palm Beach (fortystoryfilms.com)

◆ Carbon credits. We all want to save the earth but still live a comfortable lifestyle. Help somebody do both by purchasing carbon credits, which mitigate greenhouse gas emissions and reduce carbon footprints. Check out The Nature Conservancy (nature.org), Carbonfund.org, Carbon Planet (carbonplanet.com), Climate America (climateamerica.com) or TerraPass (terrapass.com).
