ARTIGRAS PATRON SOCIETY
TO BENEFIT QUANTUM HOUSE

JUPITER, Fla. – The Northern Palm Beach County Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce it has named Quantum House at St. Mary’s Hospital in West Palm Beach as the official beneficiary of the ArtiGras Patron Society. Quantum House is a home for families to stay when their children are receiving treatment in Palm Beach County for a serious medical condition.

“This partnership allows Quantum House to continue to care for families during a very critical time in their lives – when their child is ill or injured. We are overwhelmed by the generosity of the ArtiGras Patron Society and the entire festival,” said Robi Journey, the Executive Director of Quantum House.

ArtiGras Patron Society memberships are available for as low as $100 for a single, $150 for a double and $300 for a family. In addition to being recognized in the ArtiGras Official Program, ArtiGras Patron Society members also enjoy VIP festival access and parking the entire weekend, VIP keepsake credentials, access to the VIP tent where they can partake in a gourmet lunches and complimentary beverages, a complimentary 2012 ArtiGras commemorative poster and invitations to special ArtiGras events including Red, White & Zin and the exclusive “Meet the Artist” event at the Maltz Jupiter Theater.

As a special bonus, an original one-of-a-kind work of art by Homegrown Artist Devin Howell will also be included with each membership.

ArtiGras Patron Society memberships are available online at www.artigras.org or by calling the Northern Palm Beach County Chamber of Commerce at (561) 748-3946.

The 27th annual ArtiGras Fine Arts Festival is an outdoor arts event showcasing a juried exhibition of outstanding fine art and featuring activities which include live entertainment, artist demonstrations, interactive art activities for all ages and a youth art competition. Listed as one of the top 50 festivals in the country, ArtiGras 2012, which will run February 18-20, expects more than 250 artists and 125,000 guests over the three-day holiday weekend.
